Suggested Print Sizes

The image in this code package is offered in ratio: 4:5 The file is high quality (300 DPI) and designed for both printing and digital use.

The artwork is especially well-suited for 4:5 formats, preserving the balance of the composition.

You can carefully resize it for other ratios — just center the main form to maintain the visual harmony. This gives you the flexibility to print in your preferred format or use the images digitally in your sacred space.

This overview is here to guide you, not to limit you. Choose the size and format that resonates with your space, your rhythm, your way of receiving.

For best results, we recommend printing at 300 DPI using high-quality paper and a frame that allows the image to breathe.

Let the image rest where it is meant to live.

How to use this image – in flavor and feeling

Each piece is crafted to carry more than pigment — they hold a taste of truth, humor, and simple human warmth.

Place it where it lifts your day – in the kitchen, by the breakfast nook, or wherever you brew your tea and your thoughts. Let the words speak quietly to you — of honesty, sweetness, and the beauty of becoming.

What matters is not the fruit itself — but the flavor it leaves in you.

You have access to high-resolution version – for personal use.
